COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course focuses on framing and defining the analytics problem or challenge. Students will clearly define the scope, resources, and stakeholders of the analytics problem. They will also learn how to identify research questions, analytics hypotheses and potential sources of data. At the end of this course, students will have a full understanding of the steps that must be successfully completed for any analytics problem prior to gathering data.

COURSE RESOURCES

Required and recommended resources to complete coursework and assignments are found on the course Reading List. Access is provided through the Reading List link in your online course as well as from the library homepage (“Find Your Reading List” button).

Note: Required resources that must be purchased by the student are tagged “Purchase from a vendor of your choosing.” Required resources with a direct link, “Available through CityU Library”, are available electronically at no cost to students.

Students in Canada may purchase course resources from the Canada Bookstore, and students outside the U.S. and Canada should contact their advisor or textbook coordinator for additional information.

COURSE OUTCOMES

In this course, learners:

- Reframe a business problem statement as an analytics problem
- Determine stakeholders and evaluate a business problem
- Evaluate whether a problem is amenable to a business solution
- Influence stakeholder agreement and formulate key metrics of success
- Iteratively improve a problem statement and delineate constraints

OVERVIEW OF COURSE GRADING

The grades earned for the course will be derived using City University of Seattle's decimal grading system, based on the following:

Overview of Required Assignments	% of Final Grade
Instructor Determined Assignments and Activities	30%
Weekly Exercises	45%
Final Project	25%
TOTAL	100%

SPECIFICS OF COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

The instructor will provide grading rubrics with more detail as to how this assignment will be graded.

Instructor Determined Assignments and Activities

Whether in class, online, or in a mixed mode setting, students will be graded on their participation in class discussions; ability to present, explain, or defend alternative viewpoints; and the degree to which they have mastered the concepts and principles inherent in the study of business management. Online and Hybrid classes are required to use online discussion board (Blackboard - Bb). Participation through discussion is an integral part of this course, including engagement in discussions with enhancing points, new ideas, constructive disagreement, real-world examples, personal insight, expanded resource material, and collaborative sharing. Written work will be assessed not only on relevance to the subject presented, but also on adherence to good written form, APA style, and professional presentation. The instructor may also choose to create additional activities to support learning in the classroom or online.

Components	% of Grade
Quality of Responses	50%
Quantity of Responses	30%
Timeliness	20%
TOTAL	100%

Weekly Exercises

Throughout the course, students will be presented with different scenarios involving business problem formulation. The exercises will focus on the principles of business problem framing. Students will formulate a business problem, create a stakeholder list and power/interest matrix, delineate constraints and refine their business statement, and formulate a business case. Adherence to APA formatting is required. These exercises will help students develop the skills needed to formulate the components of the final case analysis which include Introduction, Background, Alternatives, Proposed Solution, and Recommendation.

Components	% of Grade
Analysis	75%
Style including Structure, Flow, Grammar, and Spelling	15%
APA	10%
TOTAL	100%

Final Project

Throughout the course, students will be presented with different scenarios involving enterprise use of business and analytics problems. The instructor will assign a case or provide guidelines to use in selecting a case for analysis. If students select the case, they will need to submit it to the instructor for approval. The case analysis will focus on formulation of business statements and analytics problems, and students will synthesize their findings throughout the course into a complete business case and provide recommendations. Adherence to APA formatting is required and the case response should be 5000-7000 words in length (excluding cover page and reference page) and include a minimum of three (3) references. The components of this case analysis include Introduction, Background, Alternatives, Proposed Solution, and Recommendation.

Components	% of Grade
Analysis	50%
Style including Structure, Flow, Grammar, and Spelling	15%
APA	10%
Organization and Coherence	25%
TOTAL	100%

COURSE POLICIES

Late Assignments

A critical aspect of management is to meet predefined deadlines. Therefore, all assignments are expected to be submitted when due. No late assignments are accepted. Life-situations do occur. When an issue arises coordinate with the instructor PRIOR TO the assignment's due date and the due date may be adjusted. It is in the best interest of the student to ensure that all assignments are submitted on time.

Participation

Class participation will be evaluated during class. Participation includes being prepared for class discussions and contributing meaningful content when appropriate. It also includes individual effort contributed to team projects.

Professional Writing

Assignments require error-free writing that uses standard English conventions and logical flow of organization to address topics clearly, completely, and concisely. CityU requires the use of APA style.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Students are responsible for understanding and adhering to all of City University of Seattle's academic policies. The most current versions of these policies can be found in the University Catalog that is linked from the CityU Web site.

Antidiscrimination

City University of Seattle and its staff and faculty are committed to supporting our students. We value equity, diversity, and inclusion as a way of life as well as the educational opportunities it provides. City U will not tolerate any form of discrimination based on race, color, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identification, socioeconomic status, or religious values. If you have experienced any discrimination based on any of the above, we encourage you to report this to the University. Please report this to your instructor. If you do not feel safe reporting this to your instructor, please report to the Provost or to the Vice President of Student Affairs.

Non-Discrimination & Prohibition of Sexual Harassment

City University of Seattle adheres to all federal, state, and local civil rights laws prohibiting discrimination in employment and education. The University is committed to ensuring that the education environment is bounded by standards of mutual respect and safety and is free from discriminatory practices.

In the U.S., the University is required by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 to ensure that all of its education programs and activities do not discriminate on the basis of sex/gender. Sex include sex, sex stereotypes, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, and pregnancy or parenting status. Sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating and domestic violence, and stalking are forms of sex discrimination, which are prohibited under Title IX and by City University of Seattle policy. City University of Seattle also prohibits retaliation against any person opposing discrimination or participating in any discrimination investigation or complaint process internal or external to the institution. Questions regarding Title IX, including its application and/or concerns about noncompliance, should be directed to the Title IX Coordinator. For a complete copy of the policy or for more information, visit <https://my.cityu.edu/titleix> or contact the Title IX Coordinator.

In Canada, in compliance with the British Columbia Human Rights Code, the Alberta Human Rights Act, WorksafeBC, and the Workers' Compensation Board of Alberta, the University believes that its environment should at all times be supportive and respectful of the dignity and self-esteem of individuals. Discrimination, harassment and bullying conduct, whether through person to person behaviour or via electronic communications such as email or social media is not acceptable and will not be tolerated. As an educational institution, it is our responsibility to cultivate an environment of excellence, equity, mutual respect and to recognize the value and potential of every individual. The University will take all necessary steps to meet or exceed the requirements of the law to prevent discrimination, harassment and bullying.

The Respectful Workplace Policy for the prevention of discrimination, harassment and bullying policy and procedure can be found at <https://www.cityu.edu/discover-cityu/about-cityu/> under the Policies section or at <https://www.cityuniversity.ca/about/>.

Religious Accommodations

City University of Seattle has a policy for accommodation of student absences or significant hardship due to reasons of faith or conscience, or for organized religious activities. The University's policy, including more information about how to request an accommodation, is available in the University Catalog and on the my.cityu.edu student portal. Accommodations must be requested by the 20% mark of this course (e.g. day 14 of a ten-week course, day 7 of a 5-week course) using the Religious Accommodations Request Form found on the student dashboard in the my.cityu.edu student portal.

Academic Integrity

Academic integrity in students requires the pursuit of scholarly activity that is free from fraud, deception and unauthorized collaboration with other individuals. Students are responsible for understanding CityU's policy on academic integrity and adhering to its standards in meeting all course requirements. A complete copy of this policy can be found in the University Catalog under Student Rights and Responsibilities on the page titled Academic Integrity Policy.

Attendance

Students taking courses in any format at the University are expected to be diligent in their studies and to attend class regularly.

Regular class attendance is important in achieving learning outcomes in the course and may be a valid consideration in determining the final grade. For classes where a physical presence is required, a student has attended if they are present at any time during the class session. For online classes, a student has attended if they have posted or submitted an assignment. A complete copy of this policy can be in the University Catalog under Student Rights and Responsibilities on the page titled Attendance.

Final Assignment Due Date

Final assignments for each class at CityU must be due on or before the final date of the course as indicated in the university's course information system. Due dates that extend beyond the final date of the course may negatively impact tuition funding for students.

Support Services

Disability Services Accommodations Statement

Students with a documented disability who wish to request academic accommodations are encouraged to contact Disability Support Services to discuss accommodation requests and eligibility requirements. Please contact Disability Support Services at disability@cityu.edu or 206.239.4752 or visit the Disability Support Services page in the my.cityu.edu portal. Confidentiality will be observed in all inquiries. Once approved, information about academic accommodations will be shared with course instructors.

Library Services

CityU librarians are available to help students find the resources and information they need to succeed in this course. Contact a CityU librarian through the Ask a Librarian service, or access library resources and services online, 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Smarthinking Tutoring

CityU students have access to free online tutoring offered through Smarthinking, including writing support, from certified tutors 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Contact CityU's Student Support Center at help@cityu.ed to request a user name and password.
