Course Description

In this course, students address the role of human resources in healthcare organizations as well as the recruitment, retention, management, and development of these resources. Students gain an understanding of the key roles of human resource personnel in establishing goals and expectations regarding organizational performance as well as how individuals contribute to effective performance in terms of controlling costs, improving quality, and providing excellent customer service. They explore major federal and state legislation that influences human resources, key management functions within workforce planning and recruitment, and functions within workforce retention.

Course Resources

Required and recommended resources to complete coursework and assignments are found on the course Reading List. Access is provided through the Reading List link in your online course as well as from the library homepage (“Find Your Reading List” button).

Note: Required resources that must be purchased by the student are tagged “Purchase from a vendor of your choosing.” Required resources with a direct link, “Available through CityU Library”, are available electronically at no cost to students.

Students in Canada may purchase course resources from the Canada Bookstore, and students outside the U.S. and Canada should contact their advisor or textbook coordinator for additional information.

Course Outcomes

This course will prepare students to:

- Analyze leadership traits that correspond with improving employee performance.
- Analyze regulations that influence and govern human resource functions in a healthcare organization.

- Develop a staffing model for a healthcare organization.
- Evaluate factors that improve and sustain high levels of patient satisfaction in a healthcare organization.

Grading Scale

The grades earned for the course will be calculated using City University of Seattle's decimal grading system, found in the current University Catalog.

Grading rubrics with details on how each assignment will be graded are located under Assignments and/or in My Grades in the online course menu. Students should review the rubric for each assignment prior to completing their work in order to understand how it will be assessed.

Course Assignments and Grading

Assignments

Laws and Regulations Governing Human Resource Management Paper (20% of Final grade)

Numerous federal and state laws regulate and govern human resource management. In this paper, students will analyze these regulations and describe how human resource functions are impacted. This paper should include, but not be limited to, discussion of employment at will laws, Title IX regulations, and ADA requirements. This 8-10 page paper must be in APA format and include a minimum of 8 professional references.

Components	% of Grade
Style and Mechanics	10%
Information Literacy	20%
Description of Laws	25%
Employment at Will Legislation	10%
Title IX Regulations	25%
ADA Requirements	10%
TOTAL	100%

Attracting and Retaining Employees Paper (30% of Final grade)

Attracting and retaining high-performing employees is an expensive endeavor. In this paper, students will examine the costs associated with attracting and retaining excellent staff, and develop a staffing model for a healthcare organization. Students should take on the role of a healthcare administrator who is looking to properly staff a clinic. For the purpose of this paper, students should assume there will be 5 primary care physicians in this organization. Students will discuss the costs and strategies to attract high-performing employees, as well as the makeup of the staffing model for this clinic. This 8-10 page paper is to be in APA format and contain a minimum of 8 professional references. The staffing model portion of the paper may be presented in a chart format as part of the paper.

Components	% of Grade
Style and Mechanics	15%
Information Literacy	15%
Attracting Employees	35%
Retaining Employees	35%
TOTAL	100%

Employee Management Paper (30% of Final grade)

Managing employees in a healthcare organization consists of setting goals and expectations regarding performance. Employees should understand how their performance and actions contribute to the control of costs, improvement of quality, and patient satisfaction. In this 8-10 page paper, students will analyze and describe the key leadership qualities a manager must have in order to be successful in setting goals and expectations regarding performance. Students are expected to provide several examples from research to support the leadership qualities. Students will include in this paper information on how employees contribute to cost, quality, and patient satisfaction in a healthcare organization, and describe how an effective leader would convey this information to employees.

Components	% of Grade
Style and Mechanics	10%
Information Literacy	15%
Leadership Qualities	25%
Performance and Actions	50%
TOTAL	100%

Essays and Quizzes (20% of Final Grade)

Each week students will write a short (3-5 paragraph) essay on the topic provided in the classroom. Students will have a one-question quiz each week. The quiz is not timed and students may use their text or other materials to research the answer.

Course Policies

Professional Writing

Assignments require error-free writing that uses standard English conventions and logical flow of organization to address topics clearly, completely, and concisely. CityU requires the use of APA style.

University Policies

Students are responsible for understanding and adhering to all of City University of Seattle's academic policies. The most current versions of these policies can be found in the University Catalog that is linked from the CityU Web site.

Antidiscrimination

City University of Seattle and its staff and faculty are committed to supporting our students. We value equity, diversity, and inclusion as a way of life as well as the educational opportunities it provides. City U will not tolerate any form of discrimination based on race, color, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identification, socioeconomic status, or religious values. If you have experienced any discrimination based on any of the above, we encourage you to report this to the University. Please report this to your instructor. If you do not feel safe reporting this to your instructor, please report to the Provost or to the Vice President of Student Affairs.

Non-Discrimination & Prohibition of Sexual Harassment

City University of Seattle adheres to all federal, state, and local civil rights laws prohibiting discrimination in employment and education. The University is committed to ensuring that the education environment is bounded by standards of mutual respect and safety and is free from discriminatory practices.

In the U.S., the University is required by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 to ensure that all of its education programs and activities do not discriminate on the basis of sex/gender. Sex include sex, sex stereotypes, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, and pregnancy or parenting status. Sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating and domestic violence, and stalking are forms of sex discrimination, which are prohibited under Title IX and by City University of Seattle policy. City University of Seattle also prohibits retaliation against any person opposing discrimination or participating in any discrimination investigation or complaint process internal or external to the institution. Questions regarding Title IX, including its application and/or concerns about noncompliance, should be directed to the Title IX Coordinator. For a complete copy of the policy or for more information, visit the Title IX portal page or contact the Title IX Coordinator.

In Canada, in compliance with the British Columbia Human Rights Code, the Alberta Human Rights Act, WorksafeBC, and the Workers' Compensation Board of Alberta, the University believes that its environment should at all times be supportive and respectful of the dignity and self-esteem of individuals. Discrimination, harassment and bullying conduct, whether through person-to-person behaviour or via electronic communications such as email or social media is not acceptable and will not be tolerated. As an educational institution, it is our responsibility to cultivate an environment of excellence, equity, mutual respect and to recognize the value and potential of every individual. The University will take all necessary steps to meet or exceed the requirements of the law to prevent discrimination, harassment and bullying. The Respectful Workplace Policy for the prevention of discrimination, harassment and bullying policy and procedure can be found at the CityU website under the Policies section or at CityU in Canada website.

Religious Accommodations

City University of Seattle has a policy for accommodation of student absences or significant hardship due to reasons of faith or conscience, or for organized religious activities. The University's policy, including more information about how to request an accommodation, is available in the University Catalog and on the my.cityu.edu student portal. Accommodations must be requested by the 20% mark of this course (e.g. day 14 of a ten-week course, day 7 of a 5-week course) using the Religious Accommodations Request Form found on the student dashboard in the my.cityu.edu student portal.

Academic Integrity

Academic integrity in students requires the pursuit of scholarly activity that is free from fraud, deception and unauthorized collaboration with other individuals. Students are responsible for understanding CityU's policy on academic integrity and adhering to its standards in meeting all course requirements. A complete copy of this policy can be found in the University Catalog under Student Rights and Responsibilities on the page titled Academic Integrity Policy.

Attendance

Students taking courses in any format at the University are expected to be diligent in their studies and to attend class regularly.

Regular class attendance is important in achieving learning outcomes in the course and may be a valid consideration in determining the final grade. For classes where a physical presence is required, a student has attended if they are present at any time during the class session. For online classes, a student has attended if they have posted or submitted an assignment. A complete copy of this policy can be in the University Catalog under Student Rights and Responsibilities on the page titled Attendance.

Final Assignment Due Date

Final assignments for each class at CityU must be due on or before the final date of the course as indicated in the university's course information system. Due dates that extend beyond the final date of the course may negatively impact tuition funding for students.

Support Services

Disability Services Accommodations Statement

Students with a documented disability who wish to request academic accommodations are encouraged to contact Disability Support Services to discuss accommodation requests and eligibility requirements. Please contact Disability Support Services at disability@cityu.edu or 206.239.4752 or visit the Disability Support Services page in the my.cityu.edu portal. Confidentiality will be observed in all inquiries. Once approved, information about academic accommodations will be shared with course instructors.

Library Services

CityU librarians are available to help students find the resources and information they need to succeed in this course. Contact a CityU librarian through the Ask a Librarian service, or access library resources and services online, 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Smarthinking Tutoring

CityU students have access to free online tutoring offered through Smarthinking, including writing support, from certified tutors 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Contact CityU's Student Support Center at mycityusupport@cityu.edu to request a user name and password.
