COURSE DESCRIPTION

The third residency will focus on the skills needed to prepare the findings and conclusions of the student's dissertation. Students will also plan for their defense and explore strategies for dissemination.

COURSE RESOURCES

Required and recommended resources to complete coursework and assignments are available from the Course Document Lookup.

CITYU LEARNING GOALS

This course supports the following City University learning goals:

COURSE OUTCOMES

In this course, learners:

- Explore the development of research findings and conclusions
- Identify opportunities and strategies for professional development and activities
- Prepare strategies for the doctoral defense

CORE CONCEPTS, KNOWLEDGE, AND SKILLS

- Defense Strategies
- Dissemination
- Research Conclusions

OVERVIEW OF COURSE GRADING

The grades earned for the course will be derived using City University of Seattle's decimal grading system, based on the following:

Overview of Required Assignments	% of Final Grade
Findings, Conclusions, and Defense Workshop	0%
TOTAL	100%

SPECIFICS OF COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

The instructor will provide grading rubrics that will provide more detail as to how this assignment will be graded.

Findings, Conclusions, and Defense Workshop

Students will work with doctoral faculty to explore strategies of discovering and writing the findings and conclusions of their dissertation study. The role and features of the dissertation defense and opportunities and strategies for dissemination will also be examined. Students will also work on individualized dissertation process plans that chart goals and timelines for completing components required in the doctoral dissertation process.

Professional Writing

Assignments require error-free writing that uses standard English conventions and logical flow of organization to address topics clearly, completely, and concisely. CityU requires the use of APA style.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

You are responsible for understanding and adhering to all of City University of Seattle's academic policies. The most current versions of these policies can be found in the University Catalog that is linked from the CityU Web site.

Title IX Statement

City University of Seattle and its faculty are committed to supporting our students and seeking an environment that is free of bias, discrimination, and harassment. If you have encountered any form of sexual misconduct (e.g. sexual assault, sexual harassment, stalking, domestic or dating violence), we encourage you to report this to the University. If you speak with a faculty member about an incident of misconduct, that faculty member must notify CityU's Title IX coordinator and share the basic fact of your experience. The Title IX coordinator will then be available to assist you in understanding all of your options and in connecting you with all possible resources on and off campus.

To view CityU'S sexual misconduct policy and for resources, please visit the Campus Safety and Title IX Page in the my.cityu.edu portal.

Scholastic Honesty

Scholastic honesty in students requires the pursuit of scholarly activity that is free from fraud, deception and unauthorized collaboration with other individuals. You are responsible for understanding CityU's policy on scholastic honesty and adhering to its standards in meeting all course requirements. A complete copy of this policy can be found in the University Catalog in the section titled Scholastic Honesty under Student Rights & Responsibilities.

Attendance

Students taking courses in any format at the University are expected to be diligent in their studies and to attend class regularly.

Regular class attendance is important in achieving learning outcomes in the course and may be a valid consideration in determining the final grade. For classes where a physical presence is required, a student has attended if s/he is present at any time during the class session. For online classes, a student has attended if s/he has posted or submitted an assignment. A complete copy of this policy can be found in the University Catalog in the section titled Attendance Policy for Mixed Mode, Online and Correspondence Courses.

SUPPORT SERVICES

Disability Services Accommodations Statement

Students with a documented disability who wish to request academic accommodations are encouraged to contact Disability Support Services to discuss accommodation requests and eligibility requirements.
