COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course examines the elements, processes, and dynamics of board governance and volunteer management of nonprofit organizations. Attention will be paid to how nonprofit organizations are governed: Roles and responsibilities of boards, staff, and volunteers; unique aspects of nonprofit board governance; boards and individual board member effectiveness; and changes in governance as a result of recent federal and state legislation. The course includes analysis of the respective roles of the board, executive director, staff and volunteers to maximize organizational effectiveness. Students will learn how to assess and improve the effectiveness of a board, the senior leadership, volunteers and the overall governance of the nonprofit organization.

COURSE RESOURCES

Required and recommended resources to complete coursework and assignments are found on the course Reading List. The reading list can be found under Course Information in Blackboard as well as from the library homepage.

Note: Required resources that must be purchased by the student are tagged “Purchase from a vendor of your choosing.” Required resources with a direct link, “Available through CityU Library”, are available at no cost to students.

Students in Canada will see required resources they need to purchase tagged “Purchase from the Canadian Bookstore.” Students outside the U.S. and Canada should contact their advisor or textbook coordinator for additional information.

CITYU LEARNING GOALS

This course supports the following City University learning goals:

- Professional competency and professional identity

COURSE OUTCOMES

In this course, learners:

- Develop strategies to increase a nonprofit board's effectiveness
- Construct a leadership framework that results in effective board and volunteer management
- Examine the legal and managerial aspects of board governance

OVERVIEW OF COURSE GRADING

The grades earned for the course will be derived using City University of Seattle's decimal grading system, based on the following:

Overview of Required Assignments	% of Final Grade
Legal and Managerial Aspects of Nonprofit Boards	20%
Board Leadership Framework	25%
Evaluate Effective Board Recruitment and Management Strategies	35%
Instructor Determined Assignments	20%
TOTAL	100%

SPECIFICS OF COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

The instructor will provide grading rubrics that will provide more detail as to how this assignment will be graded.

Legal and Managerial Aspects of Nonprofit Boards

Students will analyze a nonprofit board's governance structure and how it affects the legal and managerial aspects of the organization. Students will research a nonprofit organization (or choose one that they are familiar with). The paper will include:

- a) an introduction to the nonprofit organization;
- b) the type of board governance used at this organization (i.e. advisory board, cooperative board, constituent/representative board, policy board, etc.);
- c) a discussion of the strengths and weaknesses of this type of governance;
- d) a discussion of the legal and managerial responsibilities affected by the governance structure;
- e) a comparison of the legal and managerial responsibilities of using another type of governance structure; and
- f) a conclusion.

The paper will be 6-8 pages, using APA style, 12 point double-spaced Times New Roman font, and at least six (6) quality references.

Components	% of Grade
Writing and Organization	20%
References and APA	10%
Comparison Using Another Model of Governance	20%
Legal and Managerial Responsibilities	15%
Introduction and Description of Governance	15%
Strengths and Weaknesses of Governance Model	20%
TOTAL	100%

Board Leadership Framework

Students will analyze the characteristics, strategies, and best practices of effective board management. This paper will include:

- a) an introduction and brief analysis of the legal role of board members within a nonprofit organization including the lines of responsibility between board members and the executive director/staff;
- b) a discussion of the benefits and challenges that the nonprofit leader faces in leading and managing the board of directors;
- c) a discussion of the best practices for recruiting and optimizing the talents of board members; and
- d) a conclusion.

The final paper will be five to seven pages, double-spaced in 12pt. Times New Roman font. A minimum of six (5) quality references and adherence to APA writing conventions is required.

Components	% of Grade
Writing and Organization	20%
References and APA	10%
Analysis of Roles and Responsibilities	25%
Best Practices for Board Optimization	25%
Benefits and Challenges of Leading the Board	20%
TOTAL	100%

Evaluate Effective Board Recruitment and Management Strategies

Students will evaluate a board of directors prospectus or board of directors handbook and make recommendations to improve the prospectus or handbook as part of an overall strategy to increase organizational effectiveness. Students will select a nonprofit organization (one familiar to the student or one that can be researched) for this assignment. The paper includes:

- a) an introduction and background of the organization;

- b) a summary of each of the major sections in the handbook or prospectus including, but not limited to: board roles, responsibilities, expectations, policies, procedures as well as other important elements (i.e. bylaws, articles of incorporation, meetings protocols, confidentiality and conflict of interest policies);
- c) a critical analysis of the comprehensiveness of the handbook or prospectus;
- d) a set of recommendations for improving the prospectus or handbook based on research-supported best practices; and
- e) a conclusion.

The paper will be a total of 8-10 pages, double-spaced in 12pt. Times New Roman font. A minimum of six (6) quality references and adherence to APA writing conventions is required.

Components	% of Grade
Recommendations for Improvement	20%

Formative Assessments

Class participation through formative assessments is an integral part of this course. Formative assessments can be journals, papers, activities, quizzes, discussions, wikis, or other activities determined by the course manager and instructor. Each formative assessment includes its own rubric and/or due date as outlined within the activity to balance participation and enhance learning. Whether in class, online, or in a mixed mode setting, students will be graded on their ability to present, explain, or defend alternative viewpoints and the degree to which they have mastered the concepts and principles inherent in the study of leadership. Written work is assessed on relevance to the subject presented, adherence to writing mechanics and organization, and professional presentation.

Components	% of Grade
Use of Course Concepts	100%

COURSE POLICIES

Late Assignments

Doctoral students are required to submit all assignments by the due dates stated in the course schedule. A late assignment is one that is submitted after the due date or after any extension has expired.

If circumstances prevent a student from meeting the due date, the student needs to contact the instructor and request an extension at least 48 hours prior to the date the assignment is due. Emergency situations will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Being busy, pressured with outside work, technical issues, or having competing academic commitments are not valid reasons to grant extensions. A student who receives an extension in advance of the due date and abides by the agreement with the instructor is not subject to late penalties.

Without prior arrangement with the instructor, students who submit assignments late will receive a 5% deduction in grade each day or part of the day that the assignment is late up to a maximum of 25% off. Coursework received after 10 days will not be graded and will receive a zero grade, unless prior arrangements have been made.

Professional Writing

Assignments require error-free writing that uses standard English conventions and logical flow of organization to address topics clearly, completely, and concisely. CityU requires the use of APA style.

Participation

Participation is determined through your active engagement in classroom activities each week. This can be measured through your discussion board posts or by submitting an assignment when due.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

You are responsible for understanding and adhering to all of City University of Seattle's academic policies. The most current versions of these policies can be found in the University Catalog that is linked from the CityU Web site.

Antidiscrimination

City University of Seattle and its staff and faculty are committed to supporting our students. We value equity, diversity, and inclusion as a way of life as well as the educational opportunities it provides. City U will not tolerate any form of discrimination based on race, color, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identification, socioeconomic status, or religious values. If you have experienced any discrimination based on any of the above, we encourage you to report this to the University. Please report this to your instructor. If you do not feel safe reporting this to your instructor, please report to the Provost or to the Vice President of Student Affairs.

Non-Discrimination & Prohibition of Sexual Misconduct

City University of Seattle adheres to all federal, state, and local civil rights laws prohibiting discrimination in employment and education. The University is committed to ensuring that the education environment is bounded by standards of mutual respect and safety and is free from discriminatory practices.

In the U.S., the University is required by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 to ensure that all of its education programs and activities do not discriminate on the basis of sex/gender. Sex include sex, sex stereotypes, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, and pregnancy or parenting status. Sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating and domestic violence, and stalking are forms of sex discrimination, which are prohibited under Title IX and by City University of Seattle policy. City University of Seattle also prohibits retaliation against any person opposing discrimination or participating in any discrimination investigation or complaint process internal or external to the institution. Questions regarding Title IX, including its application and/or concerns about noncompliance, should be directed to the Title IX Coordinator. For a complete copy of the policy or for more information, visit <https://my.cityu.edu/titleix> or contact the Title IX Coordinator.

In Canada, in compliance with the British Columbia Human Rights Code, the Alberta Human Rights Act, WorksafeBC, and the Workers' Compensation Board of Alberta, the University believes that its environment should at all times be supportive and respectful of the dignity and self-esteem of individuals. Discrimination, harassment and bullying conduct, whether through person to person behaviour or via electronic communications such as email or social media is not acceptable and will not be tolerated. As an educational institution, it is our responsibility to cultivate an environment of excellence, equity, mutual respect and to recognize the value and potential of every individual. The University will take all necessary steps to meet or exceed the requirements of the law to prevent discrimination, harassment and bullying. The Respectful Workplace Policy for the prevention of discrimination, harassment and bullying policy and procedure can be found at <https://www.cityu.edu/discover-cityu/about-cityu/> under the Policies section or at <https://www.cityuniversity.ca/about/>.

Religious Accommodations

City University of Seattle has a policy for accommodation of student absences or significant hardship due to reasons of faith or conscience, or for organized religious activities. The University's policy, including more information about how to request an accommodation, is available in the University Catalog and on the my.cityu.edu student portal. Accommodations must be requested by the 20% mark of this course (e.g. day 14 of a ten-week course, day 7 of a 5-week course) using the Religious Accommodations Request Form found on the student dashboard in the my.cityu.edu student portal.

Academic Integrity

Academic integrity in students requires the pursuit of scholarly activity that is free from fraud, deception and unauthorized collaboration with other individuals. Students are responsible for understanding CityU's policy on academic integrity and adhering to its standards in meeting all course requirements. A complete copy of this policy can be found in the University Catalog in the section titled Academic Integrity Policy under Student Rights & Responsibilities.

Attendance

Students taking courses in any format at the University are expected to be diligent in their studies and to attend class regularly. Regular class attendance is important in achieving learning outcomes in the course and may be a valid consideration in determining the final grade. For classes where a physical presence is required, a student has attended if they are present at any time during the class session. For online classes, a student has attended if they have posted or submitted an assignment. A complete copy of this policy can be found in the University Catalog in the section titled Attendance under Student Rights & Responsibilities.

Final Assignments Due Date

Final assignments for each class at CityU must be due on or before the final date of the course as indicated in the university's course information system. Due dates that extend beyond the final date of the course may negatively impact tuition funding for students.

Support Services

Disability Services Accommodations Statement

Students with documented disability who wish to request academic accommodations are encouraged to contact Disability Support Services to discuss accommodation requests and eligibility requirements. Please contact Disability Support Services at disability@cityu.edu or 206.2369.4752 or visit the Disability Support Services page in the my.cityu.edu portal. Confidentiality will be observed in all inquiries. Once approved, information about academic accommodations will be shared with your course instructors.

Library Services

CityU librarians are available to help students find the resources and information they need to succeed in this course. Contact a CityU librarian through the Ask a Librarian service, or access library resources and services online, 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Smarthinking Tutoring

CityU students have 24/7 access to free online tutoring offered through Smarthinking, including writing support, from certified tutors. Contact CityU's Student Support Center at mycityusupport@cityu.edu to request a username and password.
