COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course applies microeconomics and macroeconomics theories to real world scenarios. The primary objective of the course is to teach students how to utilize analytical tools that help to gain an in-depth understanding of the business environment; make sense of the strategic interactions of enterprises; and facilitate effective economic decision making. The concepts familiarize students with the market structure, dynamics, and behaviors including how producers and consumers interact with one another and shape market behaviors. Key topics include consumer theory, intertemporal decisions, market structure, decisions under risk, externalities and market failures, economic forces, and business cycles. Upon completion of this course students will possess sufficient knowledge and skills to make proper judgements regarding the likely consequences of various economic events.

COURSE RESOURCES

Required and recommended resources to complete coursework and assignments are found on the course Reading List. The reading list can be found under Course Information in Blackboard as well as from the library homepage (“Find Your Textbook” button).

Note: Required resources that must be purchased by the student are tagged “Purchase from a vendor of your choosing.” Required resources with a direct link, “Available through CityU Library”, are available electronically at no cost to students.

Students in Canada may purchase course resources from the Canada Bookstore, and students outside the U.S. and Canada should contact their advisor or textbook coordinator for additional information.

CITYU LEARNING GOALS

This course supports the following City University learning goals:

- Lifelong learning

COURSE OUTCOMES

In this course, learners:

- Discuss the effects of business cycles on the economy, market, and enterprises.
- Extend consumer behavior theory to “intertemporal decisions” (i.e. decisions that involve a trade-off between the present and the future).
- Explain how consumers make choices based on given restraints, such as income and the prices of goods and services.
- Interpret the effects of economic forces on the enterprise performance.
- Determine economies of scale including firm interactions in a competitive market in the short-run and the long-run.
- Explain how the market structure can affect the nature of competition and pricing.
- Consider the risk in economic decision-making.

CORE CONCEPTS, KNOWLEDGE, AND SKILLS

- Consumer Theory
- Decisions under Risk
- Production and Cost
- Market Structure
- Externalities and Market Failures
- Economic Forces
- Business cycles

OVERVIEW OF COURSE GRADING

The grades earned for the course will be derived using City University of Seattle’s decimal grading system, based on the following:

Overview of Required Assignments	% of Final Grade
Instructor Determined Assignments and Activities	20%
Quizzes (2)	30%
Midterm Exam	25%
Final Case Study	25%
TOTAL	100%

SPECIFICS OF COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

The instructor will provide grading rubrics that will provide more detail as to how this assignment will be graded.

Instructor Determined Assignments and Activities

Whether in class, online, or in a mixed mode setting, you will be graded on your participation in classroom discussions; your ability to present, explain, or defend alternative viewpoints; and the degree to which you have mastered the concepts and principles inherent in the study of business management. Written work will be assessed not only on relevance to the subject presented, but also on adherence to good written form, APA style, and professional presentation. Your instructor may also choose to create additional activities to support learning in the classroom or online.

Components	% of Grade
Quality of Responses	40%
Quantity of Responses	40%
Timeliness	20%
TOTAL	100%

Quizzes (2)

Periodic assessments or quizzes will appear on the Course Schedule. The instructor will select assessment topics from the textbook chapters discussed during previous sessions. The purpose of these assessments is to allow students and the instructor to evaluate the achieved level of learning progress. This knowledge allows students to focus on those areas that need further clarification and enables the instructor to assist those students that need additional support.

Components	% of Grade
Accuracy of Solutions	100%
TOTAL	100%

Midterm Exam

The instructor will provide a midterm exam to students that will consist of quantitative and qualitative questions related to cost structure and economies of scale within organizational context. This assessment is designed to contribute to students' analytical skills and understanding of applications of economics in business decision making.

Components	% of Grade
Defining the Problem	30%
Developing a Plan to Solve the Problem	30%
Collecting and Analyzing Information	15%
Interpreting Findings and Solving the Problem	25%
TOTAL	100%

Final Case Study

The instructor will provide a case to assess students' knowledge of the effects of key economic variables (e.g., inflation rates and interest rates) on organizational decision-making. In particular, students will analyze how changes in certain economic variables might influence other variables and how such fluctuations affect organizational decisions (e.g., expansion) at a given time. APA writing conventions should be followed with a minimum of three (3) sources referenced and cited.

Components	% of Grade
Developing a Plan to Solve the Problem	20%
Application/Analysis	30%
Interpreting Findings and Solving the Problem	25%
Style including Structure, Flow, Grammar, and Spelling	15%
APA	10%
TOTAL	100%

COURSE POLICIES

Late Assignments

A critical aspect of management is to meet predefined deadlines. Therefore, all assignments are expected to be submitted when due. No late assignments are accepted. Life-situations do occur. When an issue arises coordinate with the instructor PRIOR TO the assignment's due date and the due date may be adjusted. It is in the best interest of the student to ensure that all assignments are submitted on time.

Participation

Class participation will be evaluated during class. Participation includes being prepared for class discussions and contributing meaningful content when appropriate. It also includes individual effort contributed to team projects.

Professional Writing

Assignments require error-free writing that uses standard English conventions and logical flow of organization to address topics clearly, completely, and concisely. CityU requires the use of APA style.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Students are responsible for understanding and adhering to all of City University of Seattle's academic policies. The most current versions of these policies can be found in the University Catalog that is linked from the CityU Web site.

Antidiscrimination

City University of Seattle and its staff and faculty are committed to supporting our students. We value equity, diversity, and inclusion as a way of life as well as the educational opportunities it provides. CityU will not tolerate any form of discrimination based on race, color, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identification, socioeconomic status, or religious values. If you have experienced any discrimination based on any of the above, we encourage you to report this to the University. Please report this to your instructor. If you do not feel safe reporting this to your instructor, please report to the Provost or to the Vice President of Student Affairs.

Non-Discrimination & Prohibition of Sexual Harassment

City University of Seattle adheres to all federal, state, and local civil rights laws prohibiting discrimination in employment and education. The University is committed to ensuring that the education environment is bounded by standards of mutual respect and safety and is free from discriminatory practices.

In the U.S., the University is required by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 to ensure that all of its education programs and activities do not discriminate on the basis of sex/gender. Sex include sex, sex stereotypes, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, and pregnancy or parenting status. Sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating and domestic violence, and stalking are forms of sex discrimination, which are prohibited under Title IX and by City University of Seattle policy. City University of Seattle also prohibits retaliation against any person opposing discrimination or participating in any discrimination investigation or complaint process internal or external to the institution. Questions regarding Title IX, including its application and/or concerns about noncompliance, should be directed to the Title IX Coordinator. For a complete copy of the policy or for more information, visit <https://my.cityu.edu/titleix> or contact the Title IX Coordinator.

In Canada, in compliance with the British Columbia Human Rights Code, the Alberta Human Rights Act, WorksafeBC, and the Workers' Compensation Board of Alberta, the University believes that its environment should at all times be supportive and respectful of the dignity and self-esteem of individuals. Discrimination, harassment and bullying conduct, whether through person to person behaviour or via electronic communications such as email or social media is not acceptable and will not be tolerated. As an educational institution, it is our responsibility to cultivate an environment of excellence, equity, mutual respect and to recognize the value and potential of every individual. The University will take all necessary steps to meet or exceed the requirements of the law to prevent discrimination, harassment and bullying. The Respectful Workplace Policy for the prevention of discrimination, harassment and bullying policy and procedure can be found at <https://www.cityu.edu/discover-cityu/about-cityu/> under the Policies section or at <https://www.cityuniversity.ca/about/>.

Religious Accommodations

City University of Seattle has a policy for accommodation of student absences or significant hardship due to reasons of faith or conscience, or for organized religious activities. The University's policy, including more information about how to request an accommodation, is available in the University Catalog and on the my.cityu.edu student portal. Accommodations must be requested by the 20% mark of this course (e.g. day 14 of a ten-week course, day 7 of a 5-week course) using the Religious Accommodations Request Form found on the student dashboard in the my.cityu.edu student portal.

Academic Integrity

Academic integrity in students requires the pursuit of scholarly activity that is free from fraud, deception and unauthorized collaboration with other individuals. Students are responsible for understanding CityU's policy on academic integrity and adhering to its standards in meeting all course requirements. A complete copy of this policy can be found in the University Catalog under Student Rights and Responsibilities on the page titled Academic Integrity Policy.

Attendance

Students taking courses in any format at the University are expected to be diligent in their studies and to attend class regularly.

Regular class attendance is important in achieving learning outcomes in the course and may be a valid consideration in determining the final grade. For classes where a physical presence is required, a student has attended if they are present at any time during the class session. For online classes, a student has attended if they have posted or submitted an assignment. A complete copy of this policy can be in the University Catalog under Student Rights and Responsibilities on the page titled Attendance.

Final Assignment Due Date

Final assignments for each class at CityU must be due on or before the final date of the course as indicated in the university's course information system. Due dates that extend beyond the final date of the course may negatively impact tuition funding for students.

SUPPORT SERVICES

Disability Services Accommodations Statement

Students with a documented disability who wish to request academic accommodations are encouraged to contact Disability Support Services to discuss accommodation requests and eligibility requirements. Please contact Disability Support Services at disability@cityu.edu or 206.239.4752 or visit the Disability Support Services page in the my.cityu.edu portal. Confidentiality will be observed in all inquiries. Once approved, information about academic accommodations will be shared with course instructors.

Library Services

CityU librarians are available to help students find the resources and information they need to succeed in this course. Contact a CityU librarian through the Ask a Librarian service, or access library resources and services online, 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Smarthinking Tutoring

CityU students have access to free online tutoring offered through Smarthinking, including writing support, from certified tutors 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Contact CityU's Student Support Center at help@cityu.ed to request a user name and password.
